

U.S. Department of Energy · SBIR Phase II Funding Opportunity DE-FOA-0003412

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

OFFICE OF SCIENCE

SBIR PHASE II FUNDING OPPORTUNITY ANNOUNCEMENT DE-FOA-0003412

Topic: Low-Carbon Concrete and Cement Materials

APPLICATION DUE DATE: February 19, 2027, 11:59 PM Eastern Time

A. PROGRAM OBJECTIVE

This announcement seeks Phase II applications to advance materials that reduce the embodied carbon of structural concrete.

B. AWARD SIZE

Phase II awards shall not exceed $1,100,000 over twenty-four months.

U.S. Department of Energy · SBIR Phase II Funding Opportunity DE-FOA-0003412

C. PREPARATION OF THE TECHNICAL NARRATIVE

C.1 Format Requirements

The technical narrative must be prepared in Calibri. Font size must be no smaller than 11 point. Applications shall use 0.75 inch margins on all sides.

C.2 Length Requirements

The Technical Volume shall not exceed 20 pages. This limit includes figures and tables but excludes the required forms.

C.3 Project Summary

The public project summary shall not exceed 2,500 characters.

U.S. Department of Energy · SBIR Phase II Funding Opportunity DE-FOA-0003412

D. APPLICATION COMPONENTS

Volume 1 · SF-424 Application for Federal Assistance

Volume 2 · Technical Narrative

Volume 3 · Budget (SF-424A) and Budget Justification

Volume 4 · Letters of Commitment and Support

E. MERIT REVIEW

Applications are evaluated on scientific and technical merit, appropriateness of the proposed method, and competency of applicant personnel and adequacy of resources.